Figure 1: The Laguna Honda Hospital Web Site Has Long Hosted Internet Presence for the Laguna Honda Foundation

- On September 23, LHH's philanthropy page for the Laguna Honda Foundation, contained a two links link to the Foundation's "Research Programs " and "Vision Statement" pages.
- Both links remain active, but they take site visitors to pages that no longer function.
- The Foundation invites site visitors to contact the Hospital's Community Relations Office.

Figure 2: Within Three Weeks After the Audit Started, More Pages Mysteriously Vanished from LHH's Web Site

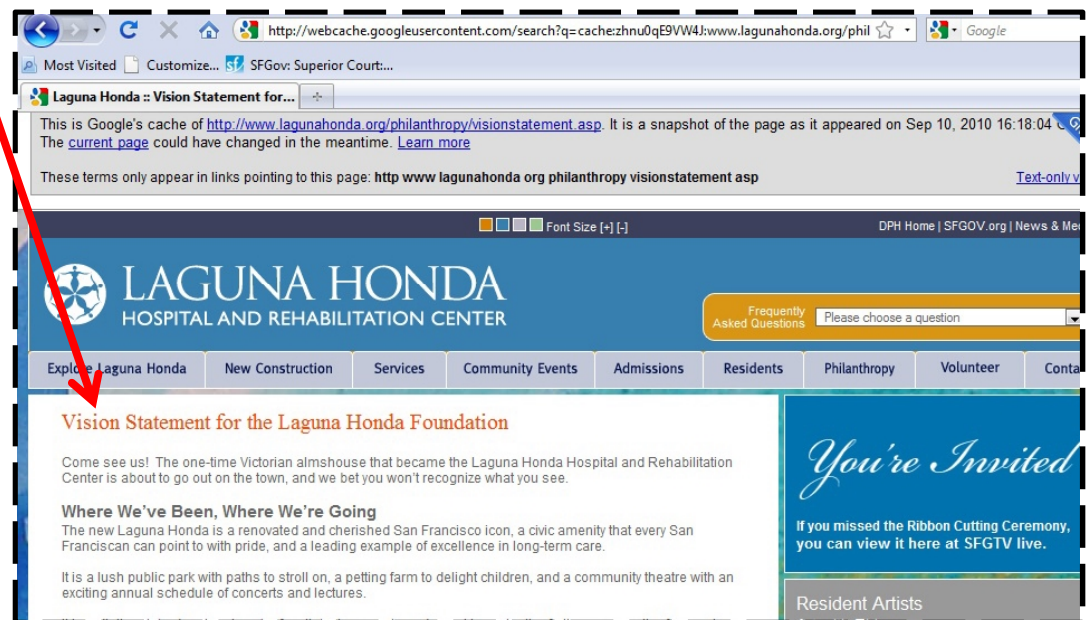

- The cover of this slide show illustrates that the “Vision Statement” page for the Laguna Honda Foundation has gone missing, as has its “Research Programs” web page.
- Why did both pages vanish during an audit of LHH’s patient gift fund that reportedly began on September 1?
- Coincidence? Or did the auditors find that hosting web pages for a non-profit may not be permissible?
- Are the missing pages being re-written?

Figure 3: The Foundation's "Vision Statement" Had Been Available on September 10

- The Foundation's "Vision Statement" had been available on the Internet as recently as September 10.
- Between September 10 and September 23, the page suddenly went missing.
- As with LHH's "Gift Fund" page that disappeared by September 9; which had been available as recently as September 7, why weren't the "Vision Statement" and "Research Programs" pages simply edited, not removed?
