	SAN FRANCISCO TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION SAYS NO TO MORE CITY DEBT.	9
	VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION A!	5
	Here's yet another $310 MILLON dollars in bond money - and believe us, it's not free money and it doesn't grow on trees.	14 8
BI	Throwing taxpayer money at the housing crisis hasn't done anything to stave off market forces - and it will not. This excessively high bond for "affordable" housing even throws in $50 million for the Mission - as if that could help the housing crisis!	13 13 12
	It's a virtual hodgepodge of taxpayer money seeking to save City Hall big shots on our dime from the results of their own failed housing policies.	15 11
	Bonds are a lien on all our property until the principal and interest are paid off. Property taxes will go up - and renters be forewarned - if the bond passes, those taxes will be handed to you in the form of higher rents.	16 14 12
	According to the City Controller statement annual costs of debt service (which means interest and principal) by 2020-2021 will be $26.7 million dollars! Next year alone, estimated at the lowest tax rate, approximate costs of debt service will be $8.3 million dollars - with property owners on the docket once again to pay the bill.	11 13 14 15 2
