Last three speakers during public comment:

3:12:13	Clerk Angela Calvillo	We have five callers who are lined up. But if you wanted to speak, press *3 [“star” 3]. There are two callers in the queue. And we’re going to take this from this last group to the end. Let’s hear from our next caller. ... Welcome, Caller?
3:12:27	[Kater]	Hi. Can you hear me?
3:12:29	Calvillo	Yes.
3:12:30	[Kater]	My name is Kyle Kater. I just wanted to touch on the topic of reparations since I heard a few people bring that up earlier [during another scheduled Agenda Item]. And ... um, I just don’t feel like White Europeans should have to pay reparations, when all the slave ships that brought the Blacks here were Jewish-owned ships. ... [Ended: 3:12:50 Effectively spoke 20 seconds]
3:12:51	Calvillo	[Interrupted]: Allright ...
3:12:55	[Kater]	... So, Jews bring Blacks here ...
3:12:57	Calvillo or Staff	[Muted, then cut off caller’s connection] Next caller please.
3:13:03	Second-to-Last Speaker	Hello. Can you hear me?
3:12:05	Calvillo	Yes, we can.
3:13:07	Second-to-Last Speaker	I just wanted to ... um ... address that as well, The [European ?] Kikes brought the niggers, and they could pay the ... [Ended 3:13:13. Effectively spoke 6 seconds]
3:13:14	Calvillo or Staff	[Muted, then cut off caller’s connection]
3:13:14	President Aaron Peskin	[Voiceover Calvillo] OK. I am now ... Let’s be clear. I fought to have unlimited remote public comment. I will be introducing a change to the Board’s Rules. This will be done. It ain’t gonna happen in these [Board] Chambers [referring to the racist and antisemitic speech] ... in the City. It is over [all remote public comment]. Next speaker, you are going to be one of the last remote public speakers that we have. Go ahead.
3:13:40	Board Staff	That was the last caller in the queue.
3:13:44	Peskin	[Sound of gavel.] Public Comment [period] is closed.
